

THÉÂTRE DE LIÈGE

Jérôme Bel Jérôme Bel / Ayelen Parolin

18 November 2022 | Liège, Belgium

Jérôme Bel bares his soul in a choreographic autobiography, sharing his doubts and his fears, his hopes and his commitments, his failures and his successes to recreate the journey of a man in times of uncertainty. The French choreographer, who is an avid proponent of environmental transition, has joined forces with director Katie Mitchell and Théâtre Vidy-Lausanne to create the Sustainable Theatre? project and offer a piece that does not tour and which is recreated by the artist in collaboration with the Théâtre de Liège and Ayelen Parolin

Video recording: <https://vimeo.com/773341483>

*To respect artistic rights, the password for this video is available only upon request.
You can contact "admin@sustainablestages.eu" for this purpose*